“ Annie and I were reacquainted after she retired. I delivered groceries to her once a week, and we would have a nice visit. She was always so loving and kind to me. The world lost a special lady with her passing. Judy Schulz

“ My Great Aunt Ann was a compassionate, caring, loving woman with an incredible grace and a beautiful smile. She was strong, independent, brave and courageous way before it became acceptable for women to be on their own.

She also taught me that one of the great things about being single is that you can have whatever you want for dinner...even cereal!

It's Cheerio's for dinner tonight, in honor of Aunt Ann!

Love,

“ I first knew Ann when she worked at Cooks Drugs in Greeley the 1960's and also at First Presbyterian Church in Greeley. Lost track of her till several years ago. I was a visitation pastor and met her at the request of a friend. That meeting led to many years of friendship, fellowship, and becoming her pastor. I will always cherish my times of visiting with her. She was such a sweet servant of God. I will certainly miss her but am rejoicing that she is not in the arms of her Lord and Savior. Shortly before her home going, she promised me she would meet me at the gates of heaven with my time come to make that same journey that she has made. RIP Ann.

“ I visited Ann for about five years as part of Generations Church, and for awhile as part of Pathways Hospice. She was my favorite of course. I know how much she wanted to go home to heaven, so I am very happy she graduated there. I will miss her tremendously.

“ My mother, Eleanore Griffith and I, Leslie Griffith, bought a lot of our clothes from her shop and visited with her. Very nice lady. Her shop was the best. My prayers go with her and her family

“ You are all in our thoughts and prayers, Ann was a wonderful person and we know you will all miss her. Ann helped me, Carmen Batman, pick out my first suit for an interview and I got the job. My mother Mary L Batman, sister Geery Cordova all did love her shop and still miss it. Ann was always willing to listen and help everyone pick out the right outfit. May God Bless You and give you Peace and Comfort at this time.
