“ It is so hard to believe she is gone! My thoughts and prayers to all of the family. Pat and I would go shopping, or out to eat, and never could control ourselves. We had some really good laughs. Those times will forever be on my mind, and in my heart. Pat, you may be gone from this earth, but never gone in my heart. <3

“ I met Bud and Pat when I was 8 years old (I'm 65 now).....my mom and Bud/Pat lived next door to one another in an apt complex on Crenshaw/Lemoli....WAY back in the day. I remember Dean was about 7 months old and I use to push him around in the stroller.....one night, on Halloween, mom and Mudder and Bud got to consuming some libations (LOL), while us kids were out trick-treating...I had Dean in the stroller....we kids in the complex were having a blast....I remember when we came back, they were whooping it up, having a blast and I could hear mom and Mudder laughing....Mudder's laugh is something I'll never forget....LOVED IT. Mom and I, and the Hills, ended up living again next to one another when we all moved....I remember we all flew back to PA to visit them one summer on the farm.....that was one of my favorite summers ever.

I will miss you Patsy with all my heart.....our "connection" we had the past couple of years, yaking on the phone as I was driving home, me calling you or vice versa, one of us saying, "You've been on my mind the past couple of days....you okay??" And, we'd reminisce about the old days....she loved my mom like a sister and my mom loved Patsy to pieces.

Rest in peace Mudder....you were my #2 Mom and you knew it.....and I told her how much I loved her every time I talked to her.

....forever in my heart you will be.

“ Pat was such a total joy to be around. She was so fast to laugh and her giggle was infectious. She was incredibly passionate about whatever she cared about. I started to purchase some of her art pieces over 20 years ago and still have them. She even did some specific pieces for my family. She was an incredible mother. I love all 3 of her kids and have been close friends with her daughter for 30 years. Our loss is heaven's gain. It's not goodbye, it's just so long for now.
