“ Mijo I'll always have memories with you how we use to watch movies together late at night and setting off the timers and your dad would come down wondering what that noise was. Watching and betting on football games with you even though I was a Dallas fan and you were a Broncos fan, I'm gonna miss getting you iced coffee all the time, and playing ticks with your mom. I'm gonna miss helping you and doing things for you, you'll always be in my heart.

“ Sorry for your loss. I meet Rudy many years ago when he came by the fire station that was downtown where the hotel is now. He was curious about the fire engines and asked a lot of questions while I showed them to him. Then we provided care to Rudy a few times when he was having some medical issues.
