“ When I was going to school at union Colony Steven would always walk to aims and meet me after school, we'd always talk the deepest of thoughts that we had. Steven would also always text me at 6 am and ask me to meet him at the skate park behind my doctors office and we'd hangout and talk and I'd watch him do parcore and skate because those were always his coping outlets. He was always the strongest person I knew. He always made sure I was okay even if he wasn't. He was strong willed and very outgoing. His intentions were always so pure. He will forever be missed. He will forever have taken a piece of me with him. He will meet Nan and I promise she'll take care of him, she was my guardian angel, he knew about her, she'll take care of him
